Simply Irresistible

With superb family appeal, you will love everything this large 3 bedroom brick home has to offer, built in the 1980's and situated on 1012 sq mtr allotment. The property is immaculate inside and out, all bedrooms have built in robes and the main has an ensuite. Offering modern kitchen / dining room, large lounge room, combustion fire and air conditioning. Very private and easy to maintain rear yard with easy access through double gates and colourbond fencing all sides, this is the perfect place to call the family home. Entertaining is a breeze with the side verandah, bbq area or up the back under the shade of the trees. Lock up garage, garden shed and various citrus and fruit trees. This property is located in a quiet street, and directly across the road from the children's park where you can spend afternoons kicking the footy around. The school run is also made simple, with the school bus pickup and drop off right at your front door.

This very impressive home is sure to impress.
